Letter from our Pastor

Many of you know that Romans 12:1-2 has a very special place in my heart. Once again, the Spirit of God has brought my spiritual ponderings back to these verses. As the new year begins, the Lord has placed on my heart three questions and two key words. I pray these will give me clarity each day as I discern God's will for my life.

Questions:

1. God, what would you have me do today for your glory? Coming from an understanding that we are surrendered servants (ambassadors) of the most high God, let us present ourselves each day to be a living sacrifice. Let us determine within our heart and our spirit each day to let God guide our footsteps.

2. God, if not me, then who? We need to be aware that we are God's messengers in Haleyville. He has called us out to do his mission in Haleyville. This year let us be more sensitive to that calling on our lives.

3. God, what could I have done differently today to bring you greater glory? This question of reflection at the end of the day will get our spirit headed in the right direction before the next day.

Key Words:

1. Changes. Life will bring us changes without asking our permission. I pray that this next year we can leverage those changes to move forward for God's glory.

2. Choices. As children of God, may we never react to the circumstances in our life. Rather let us act. Let us make willful, prayerful, wise, and scriptural choices over every opportunity and next step.

Join me in moving forward for God's glory in 2025!

24/7, Nathan

Thank you so much for remembering us in the loss of Don's Uncle Glen. He lived an amazing life and was 102 when he passed. He loved and served the Lord throughout his life. Thank you for your thoughts and especially your prayers.
Love in Christ,
Don and Angela Minor and Family
